David Dobler, pastor of the Jewel Lake Parish, had been elected as the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church.

Delete "New Ministries" from the list of duties and responsibilities assigned to the Administrative Unit. 3. Delete "to present and interpret the financial support and marketing strategies of the AMC" from the list of duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Unit. 4. Transfer the Administrative Unit directive "to coordinate and oversee the administrative functions necessary to insure that the Regional Program Councils will be able to carry out the ministry of the AMC" to section R5.1006 and add to the list of the CCC duties and responsibilities. 5. Transfer the Administrative Unit directive "to actively promote the development of new ministries within the AMC" to the list of duties and responsibilities of the New Ministries Committee in section R5.1013.

VIDEO PRESENTATION- Jim Campbell introduced a new promotional video on ministry within the Alaska Missionary Conference. It was produced by United Methodist Communication.

CAMPAIGN FEASIBILITY STUDY COMMITTEE REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS were presented by Tom Packer. Based on the results of the Feasibility Study, the Committee recommends that the AMC proceed as follows:

1. Reduce the proposed cost to focus on specific and urgent capital needs which total $360,000 concentrated in two ministry areas as follows:

a. NEW MINISTRIES	$150,000
1. Phase Two Facility for Unalaska	$125,000
2. Furnishings and Equipment for Anvik	$ 25,000
b. CAMPS	$150,000
1. Birchwood Shower House, Electric, Roofing	$ 80,000
2. Southeast Septic and Cabin	$ 45,000
3. Hope Septic	$ 25,000
c. CAMPAIGN	$ 60,000
1. Feasibility Study	$ 18,000
2. Campaign Staffing and Expenses	$ 42,000

2. Staff the campaign through local expertise and volunteers.

3. If funds fall short, after payment of campaign costs, the balance would be proportionally distributed between the five items based on these original goals.

4. The campaign timing be delayed until after a thorough communications effort is run in conjunction with the fall charge conferences. After such an opportunity to dialogue among our churches, it is hoped that the Conference will respond in a strongly unified and supportive fashion. The actual focused campaign effort to be conducted during April and May, 1994, following Easter Sunday, April 3.

5. The existing Study Committee continue to provide leadership and expand as necessary to constitute a Campaign Committee.

A word of thanks was expressed to the co-chairs, Tom Packer and Duane Chase, and to the following committee members: Joe Alter, Henry Saafi, Nancy Felton, Linda Jean Myers, Bob Ginn, Tom Taylor, Lane Rees, Susan Bickman, and Suzanne Little.

ADMINISTRATIVE UNIT was guided by Linda Jean Myers. Linda Jean presented the Committee on Equitable Compensation report, and it was adopted unanimously. The minimum cash base compensation was set at $23,000. The continuing education rate was set at $900 per year. Linda Jean reported on the Administrative Unit's action at their September 25-26, 1992 meeting concerning Parsonage Standards. The committee reviewed and recommended the following changes: Delete last sentence of the first paragraph- "An Encouragement to all:" Add the following- "We encourage the parish to provide a home in keeping with the standards of the community, offering these guidelines as suggestions." Add to paragraph titled "Furnishings:" after the words "lawnmower, where needed" the following- "snow blower or provision for snow removal". Billy Still moved for the approval of the Pensions recommendations. Total funding sources for pensions in 1994 will be $137,176. Item #7 (the past service pension rate for 1994) was set at $340.00 per service year. Item #8, related to the use of pension payments for housing allowance, was also adopted. The balance of the recommendations then passed unanimously. The United Methodist Hospital and Medical Expense Plan report was also presented by Billy Still. The following proposal was adopted as amended: 1. Increase the annual individual deductible to $200 and remove the first $500 of any hospital stay paid in full. Proposal #1 to take effect January 1, 1994. 2. Provide only one entrance into the program for those under full-time appointment to local churches. Each appointed person would be charged the same rate. Proposal #2 would take effect July 1, 1993. 3. There will be no change in the existing rates for institutional members and all other local church employees. 4. All full-time employees of the AMC or local churches will be eligible for participation. Full-time is defined as 30 hours a week at minimum wage. The above item #4 was further amended to read "all AMC employees or local church employees who are employed at least 20 hours per week are eligible for membership if recommended by their employer." This eligibility requirement would affect all employees who are not currently involved in the HMEP program... effective January 1, 1994. Billy spoke briefly about the Health Flex medical program that is on the horizon. The United Methodist Foundation of Alaska, Inc., has a balance of $1,801.35 as of March 31, 1993.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER AND SUPERINTENDENT DIALOGUE- presented by Lane Rees and Carol Seckel. Subsequent written reports appear here.

Lane C. Rees, Lay Leader

Carol Seckel and I enjoyed having a dialog this year -- sharing our thoughts on Churches in Solidarity with Women, women's issues in general, and visions for the AMC. Even though we often view issues from different perspectives, we ARE United Methodists.

After our dialog, I led an afternoon discussion with the laity. I am appreciative of Phyllis Sullivan for taking some notes which I used as the basis for this report. We discussed two questions: (1) What is going right in the Alaska Missionary Conference, and (2) how can we affirm our gifts and talents better?

Question 1:

- Chugiak had several interim pastors with a permanent appointment due June 15. Not easy, but a good experience for the members -- very unifying.
- Reported by Robbie Robinson that 18 of the churches are expanding.
- Very positive support for the Wesley Rehabilitation Center in Seward.
- Had difficult situation on campus at UAF, however counselors and Chuck Young provided ministry.
- Numerous comments on strength of UMW.
- Unalaska, Palmer Fellowship, Anvik are all giving opportunity for mission.
- Support from Volunteers in Mission and the work they do for AMC

Question 2:

- Youth have been to Mexico. Can also find mission projects in Alaska.
- Encourage more laity to go to Lay Speaking Program as well as Walk to Emmaus.
- More active support for APU.
- Laity can be involved in delivering communion to shut-ins and hospital patients.
- Need more UMM - one in every church.
- Eliminate sexist language in our materials and language.
- Can make curriculum more "Alaskan." Can write our own or revise others.
- Support feasibility campaign and affirm by putting it over the top.

Carol Ann Seckel, Conference Superintendent

How does one begin to report on all the mission and ministry that takes place in the Alaska Missionary Conference in any one year? There are many ways to report - we paid our General Church apportionments in full, our membership increased, a new church was chartered, several new ministries lie on the horizon taking us into new territory among the Athabascan people as well as our Russian neighbors. Many churches have begun new ministries among those in need - the AIDS community, the latchkey and preschool children, the homeless, those in transitional living. We celebrate the fullness of what it means to be in mission and in ministry in Alaska as well as throughout our global community.

This last year focus was placed on communications at several levels. The first level of communication addressed was that of establishing a sense of collegiality between clergy and laity in ministry together. Lane Rees and I, as the Lay Leader and Superintendent, spent time throughout the year meeting and addressing the issue. In three of the regions we were able to draw together clergy and key lay persons from the churches to dialogue with the Bishop about the needs and dreams of the Conference and the individual churches. Communicating over such a vast area with so few churches is a challenge to even the most able communicator. With the rapid change of both lay and clergy leaders, communications take on a more complicated twist necessitating time in establishing trust and community.

The second level of communications is that level in which we try to communicate the mission of the Alaska Missionary Conference. Many of us have stumbled trying to explain to others exactly why Alaska is a missionary conference. While some of our churches reach those who are in poverty, isolation and great need, on any given Sunday our church experience is akin to that across the country with the exception of having younger congregations in both age and Christian experience. The longer I am Superintendent the more I am convinced that we are a missionary conference because of the great potential we have just begun to address.

New church development and evangelism were never my strengths, yet it seems that opportunities are coming at us faster than we can respond. The joy of having such opportunities lies not only in being able to share the love of God with others but also in watching the United Methodist congregations in Alaska respond to the call to expand. Lay and clergy around the Conference have been instrumental in the work at Unalaska as well as in the Filipino work in Douglas. Because of the work of people in our churches, we are being asked to explore ministry in Anvik and Russia. This is not part of a plan that we created from any great wisdom. I do believe it is part of the presence of God's Spirit acting in our midst. In our faith journeys with one another, we are able to open our eyes and our hearts together to respond.

How do we share this with others? The same way we share it here. We must not be afraid to tell the story of the Alaska mission to others. Telling the whole story - from Jesse Lee Home and Dyce to Unalaska and Novo Chapilino. We need to communicate the stories of John Waghiyi and Gordon Gould. We need to share the dreams of many who have gone before us and had a vision of the potential for Christian presence in Alaska through the United Methodist Church working with our ecumenical brothers and sisters. The sense of joy and enthusiasm for our ministry is contagious, even in the times of transition and economic struggle.

The part of the experience as a missionary conference that is most difficult to communicate is our relationship with the General Board of Global Ministries. As we receive new persons into our churches, explaining becomes more difficult. The clergy and families have an image of mission service that often conflicts with the experience they have here. Laity are often confused when it comes to the sale of parsonages or the attempts to borrow funds for building about the relationship with this place in New York that seems so far away.

Through the work of our new liaison, Betty Letzig, fortunately "New York" is beginning to have a face that is recognizable and a response that is expedient to our needs. However, we must recognize that the relationship with the General Board of Global Ministries is one that needs some tending to in terms of adequately addressing the needs and self-determination of our Conference. In many ways, we are already determining our future through the generous giving of so many persons. Functionally we act as if we were an annual conference, but then we are asked to begin new work in mission and we find ourselves strapped. There is only so much stretch to our 28 churches. The balance between being a mission and becoming self-determining is one that will continue to be an agenda item for dialogue, with the Alaska Missionary Conference and the National Division of the General Board of Global Ministries for several years. Perhaps through this dialogue, a new model of relationship will emerge for consideration by the denomination.

It seems as if there is much I am not remembering to share in this report. For those reading this, please note that the actual report was given in dialogue form with the Conference Lay Leader, Lane Rees. It is a privilege to serve as the Superintendent in Alaska. The experience I have in getting into new communities, visiting churches, meeting so many committed persons is one that will be remembered for a long time. It is a humbling experience to be called by the church to serve in this type of ministry in these years of challenge and opportunity. For all that has been, for all that is, and for all that shall be - thanks be to God!

LAITY AND CLERGY SESSIONS were held for the balance of the afternoon.

Plenary Session #5

CONFERENCE COORDINATING COUNCIL- Betty Taylor reported on the various actions that the Council has taken this year:

1. Procedural changes for allocation of program monies.
2. Creation of guidelines for the Conference sending individuals to national events.
3. Setting up of a personnel committee to work with the Council Director and to serve as a link between CCC and the Professional Ministries Committee and CF&A concerning Conference staffing needs.

5. Initiation of a re-evaluation of the process used to submit petitions to Annual Meeting.

On October 1-7 a GCOM task force will be itinerating in Alaska as part of the General Conference mandate to conduct a study to help determine how to expand United Methodist Mission and Ministry in Alaska. A brief report was given by each of the Regional Chairpersons: Jim Sutton, Robert Simmons, Del Wasser, and Rose McLean.

NATIONAL PROGRAM DIVISION LIAISON Betty Letzig, National Program Division staff linkage person to the Alaska Missionary Conference, presented the following report, which was approved to print in full.

It is good to be here with you and to bring you greetings from the National Division. This is my third trip to Alaska in 1993 and my fourth since last August.

Personally, I have long had an interest in and association with Alaska. At the age of 12 when I first joined the World Friendship Group of Girls, one of our programs was entitled, "Farthest North and Farthest West." It was about the Lavinia Wallace Young Community Center and Maynard MacDougall Hospital in Nome. Later I learned about the famous dog sled race to deliver diphtheria serum to the hospital. Since I had diphtheria when in the third grade, that event held a special interest for me.

Early in my service as a Deaconess, I heard Dr. P. Gordon Gould talk about the ministry in Alaska and the need for mission personnel. Over a period of two to three years I wrote on three separate occasions making inquiry about positions, but got no response. Then one Fall, three days after I had begun work in a new position, I received a call asking me to come work at Alaska Pacific University. Obviously, I could not accept.

It was then late in the 1960's when as a staff member of the National Division my portfolio was changed and my work with institutional ministries included work with Alaska. When the Alaska Continuing Consultation Committee was first established, I was a part of that and have had a off-and-on relationship with it since that time. Since 1984 when my portfolio was changed from work with institutional ministries to that of mission personnel, my contacts had been more indirect.

Last July I was drafted as the linkage person between the National Program Division and the Alaska Missionary Conference. My reluctance to take on that responsibility had nothing to do with my not wanting to work with AMC, but the fact that I had already had a more than full-time portfolio and none of those responsibilities had been taken away. In that new role it is my responsibility to keep in balance the responsibility for being an advocate for AMC when in the office and an advocate for the National Division while in Alaska.

Ours is a mutual ministry. The National Division has responsibilities for Alaska as a Missionary Conference that are specified in the Discipline. National Division cannot "do" mission and ministry from "475." Neither do we intend or expect to control what mission is undertaken -- but what is required is cooperation and joint planning, honesty and openness on both parts.

What I know about ahead of time I can prepare for. If that doesn't happen, it is much harder to deal with the "fall out" and "mop up."

Some of you who have been here for longer periods know there has been a lot of turnover in NPD staff, not only in terms of the staff liaison/linkage person to AMC but at the top level as well. That means there must be a continual education process with new administration and colleagues. We no longer have the benefit of a "collective memory." Without that history, some staff do not understand why NPD should/does hold title to property in Alaska. They have no history to know, remember, or recognize that the same plan for establishing mission was/is true for Red Bird Missionary Conference, Henderson Settlement, Northern New Mexico Mission, Puerto Rico, etc. just as was/is true for overseas ministries. Neither do they have any knowledge of the comity agreements that existed or their continuing impact.

It is also necessary to be continually alert to "preconceptions" and/or stereotypes that are often exaggerated if not clearly erroneous. I do not concur that you are just a group of middle-class Caucasians that ought to be able to take care of your own church needs. In my perspective you are strategically located for mission in a state that has the lowest percentage of persons who are members of churches and, therefore, an area with great need and potential. I also see you as a dedicated Christian community striving to be the Church in mission in a vast territory with tremendous obstacles of distance, climate, isolation, limited and costly transportation in a region with a high ratio of social and family dysfunctions. You are also a strong base for equality and justice amidst a larger, growing conservative religious community. You are actively reaching out, trying to expand the ministry among ethnic and racial minority groups with limited resources from within the Conference and, consequently, dependent upon resources from the connectional Church -- and that is as it ought to be.

It is important that you also understand and appreciate the situation of the NPD and the General Board of Global Ministries. We are under tremendous pressures. We have diminishing resources. We are receiving a smaller percentage of World Service and face rising fixed costs just as you do in your local churches. (If every local church paid its World Service in full, both NPD and the World Division would have an additional $1 million for program.)

The economic and social deterioration of our nation calls for increased services from NPD. When we began our budget process for 1994, we had $2.2 million more in requests than anticipated income. Contributing to those demands is the fact that despite all the criticism leveled at GBGM, General Conference assigned the majority of the new major program and initiatives to the Nation Division for implementation: Shalom Zone, Substance Abuse and Violence, National Plan for Hispanic Ministry, Native American Comprehensive Plan, and Homelessness.

To date, no funds have been received for getting these programs under way. The current staff has had to take on the additional responsibility of implementation, except for the area of Substance Abuse and Violence where a new person is serving on a half-time arrangement with the General Board of Church and Society. Budgets are being strained by the increased travel required, and support staff are also having to carry heavier workloads.

Two actions that have been taken will have an impact on the future ministry and mission of AMC. One is the petition submitted by the Native Ministries Committee of AMC to General Conference that has resulted in the Study by the General Council on Ministries that is now underway. Several of you have received questionnaires to be completed and returned to GCOM. The next stage is the on-site visit now scheduled for October 1-9. Bishop Dew and Tom Taylor serve on that Task Force representing GCOM, and Cynthia Kent, Executive Secretary of Native American Ministries, whom many of you know, and I have been assigned to work with that team. The Reverend Paul Dirdak, president of the National Division, will also be on the Task Force. This does provide an opportunity for an objective look at AMC and the potential for future ministry here.

The second is action by NPD as a part of its 10-Year Comprehensive Plan going into the 21st century. Every "project" -- which means each of the institutions related to the National Division and the AMC - will be asked to do a self-assessment. Volunteers are being trained to work with each "project" in the self-assessment process. A video and a workbook are being developed for use in the self-assessment. The first "pilot" self-assessment took place with the Wesley Community Center in Phoenix, AZ. Along with that is an effort to better coordinate all NPD-related work projects, institutions, and personnel. Our first test has been in El Paso, Texas. Timelines are being developed but haven't been determined at this time. I shall continue to work with Carol Seckel as the Conference Superintendent to keep her as informed as possible and communication lines open.

Last summer for the first time we held Orientation and Training for personnel serving in Alaska here in Alaska. The first week was at Birchwood Camp and the second week at Meier Lake as part of the Alaska Christian Council Conference for new clergy serving in Alaska. At that point we were caught up with our training of new personnel.

This year with six new pastors coming we are again scheduling Orientation and Training at Birchwood Camp for two weeks, August 9-20, with commissioning on Thursday night, August 19. You are all invited. Carol Seckel, Susan Smalley, Mike Thornberry, and Sharon Cooper will each have leadership roles. Steve Goldstein from the MECPD staff will be present for a workshop on itineration and letter writing. The Core Interpreters selected by the AMC will also be taking part in that workshop.

There is one final concern to share with you. Most of you probably already know that General Conference accepted the report from the special committee that it was "feasible" for the General Board of Global Ministries to operate outside of New York City. Another committee has now been appointed to determine whether or not such a move would be recommended, where such a move might be made, and the projected cost of such a move.

The uncertainty about our future location does have an adverse affect on both the morale of some staff and the ability to hire new staff. Some prospective personnel are reluctant to accept a position knowing they might have to relocate again soon. This is especially true for families where both spouses are employed.

For present staff, the morale factor gets expressed most often by those concerned about what the costs of a move would mean in terms of diminished funds available for mission at a time when needs are greater than ever and there are some unprecedented opportunities open to us in several areas. As I'm sure all of you know, Bishop Dew heads that committee. The committee and our Board need your prayers.

As this Annual Conference comes to an end, I do want to express my appreciation for you and your ministries, and ask for your prayers for the GBGM, NPD, and for me. Thank you.

UNITED METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE- On behalf of the United Methodist Publishing House, Bishop Dew presented a check for $471.56 to Conference Treasurer, Susan Bickman. The funds are dedicated for Pensions.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION-

Bob Bowers expressed appreciation for the work of Conference Treasurer, Susan Bickman, and Financial Assistant, Linda Faro. Bob reported that the '92 apportionments came in at 91.8%. Susan Bickman commented on the importance of making consistent and timely HMEP payments. She stated that we are ahead in our receipts this year compared with last year. She also expressed her appreciation to Linda Faro and Betty Letzig. Bob reported on the Dependent (Child) Care motion referred to CF&A. The Council estimated that the costs for such an action could be $2,000 - $4,000 per year. He presented three options: 1. Raise apportionments $3,000 by adding a new line item. 2. Take the funds out of existing line items. 3. Cut the budget by approximately $3,000. Final action on this item was left for a later time.

Bob Bowers then presented a series of overhead projections that he used at Ketchikan UMC for the purposes of helping his local church understand how apportionments were expended.

A motion was made to raise the Western Jurisdiction Small Church Center line item from $250 to $400. The body then suspended the rules in order to deal with this request. The request for $400 was approved. Section I and II of the budget were then adopted. Section III was adopted following the approval of a new line item #17 entitled "Dependent Care" for $2,000 under Connectional Administration funds. Section IV was then approved and the total budget was adopted at $521,682.00.

MAJOR NEEDS ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE- Duane Chase moved that the report be considered. The report was adopted as amended.

1. Change the total to be raised from $360,000 to $305,000.
2. $5,000 was designated for campaign costs (this is included in the total of $305,000).
3. Financial goals for New Ministries and Camps will remain as originally proposed.
4. Report items listed as #2, #3, #4, and #5 remain as originally proposed.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE- Carol Seckel presented a slate of nominees to fill current vacancies.

V. REPORTS TO THE CONFERENCE

A. Superintendent's Report

C. Council Director's Report

Jim Campbell

This has been a good year, a demanding but most exciting year. So many possibilities were explored- new ministries, Native ministries, communication ministries, Disaster Preparedness ministries. It has been a year of transition as the CCC reconsidered its role among the regions and program committees of the church and the transition of new faces on the committees as the new quadrennium begins. It has been a year of learning to "network" needs of the Conference into the goals and resources of the General and Jurisdictional Church. It has been a year of trying to address specific needs of particular churches with the spirit of other churches in similar circumstances in other parts of the country. This has been a year when demands as Council Director, Chair of Communications, and Disaster Preparedness Co-Chair have set a fast paced agenda. My first two years as Council Director gave me time to wonder just what the job was. This year I was so busy doing it I didn't have time to ask.

The goals for the Council Director for this next year are:

1. Help further the initiatives in Native and New Ministries.
2. Encourage ways for the regions to be creative with the realities of less funding.
3. Continue to connect the Conference needs with General Church goals and resources.
4. Further the dynamics of "Strategic Planning" as it changes to help us focus and grow.

D. Conference Treasurer's Report

Susan Bickman

This year I was able to attend one of the four regional workshops of the CF&A Chairs and Conference Treasurers nationwide. It was very rewarding to meet other treasurers from around the country, and realize how unique our conference is. Being the only "volunteer" treasurer in that particular group was unique, along with realizing how different in size we are. Our "Missionary" status also makes us unique in how we handle our programs and problems. But I also learned our financial 'problems' are not unique, that they are concerns in most conferences. It was inspiring and educational to learn, share and listen to different ways of handling our responsibilities. A full report has been filed with the CF&A chairman, or any committee member would be more than happy to share the detailed report of those discussions with anyone interested.

One common practice I became aware of, was when a church is 3 months in arrears on their HMEP coverage, the insured individuals are dropped from coverage. (A good percentage dropped them to 2 months, but the majority was 3 months.)

Beginning in 1994, I will suggest to CF&A the termination of any HMEP coverage that goes over 3 months past due. The Conference rules are vague, and state coverage may be terminated at the option of the treasurer. We have withheld the amount from salary support, but have never terminated coverage when in excess of 3 months past due.

E. Conference Coordinating Council

Betty J. Taylor, Chair

The Council membership is mostly new this first year of the quadrennium. An orientation retreat was held in November, 1992. Members attended the January, 1993 Western Jurisdiction Joint Training Event in San Diego, sponsored by the General Council on Ministries in cooperation with the General Program Agencies. In connection with that event, the GCOM staff spent one day with our Council listening to our hopes and dreams for the Alaska Missionary Conference, and the problems which are unique to our Conference. A GCOM task force will visit Alaska in October, 1993, as they carry out the study mandated by General Conference to "Expand United Methodist Mission and Ministry in Alaska."

The Council made procedural changes for allocation of program monies, set guidelines for the Conference in sending individuals to national events, set up a personnel committee to work with the Council Director and to serve as a link between the CCC and the Professional Ministries Committee and CF&A concerning Conference staffing needs, appointed an ad hoc committee to address the mandate of Annual Meeting to define the scope and purpose of the Regional Program Councils, and initiated a re-evaluation of the process used to submit petitions to Annual Meeting.

F. Kenai Peninsula Regional Program Council

Robert Simmons, Chair

The Kenai Regional Program Council has met in Seward, Kenai, and Soldotna since our Annual Meeting in Anchorage. Joan Wilkins was elected to replace Steven Lambert as Secretary for the KPRC. In addition to the meetings, the clergy have met several times this past year. The KPRC has purchased 2 video tape series, the content of which is designed to help families grow together. A budget proposal for 1994 was developed and submitted to the CCC.

The KPRC clergy have been meeting monthly for spiritual development and study. Hazelyn McComas was the resource person for one of those meetings. We are planning a planning retreat in September. The KPRC is sponsoring a "Celebrating Marriage Retreat" in November to be led by Dave and Kim Beckett. (This past year the KPRC helped to bring Dr. Ed Trimmer to the Peninsula to help us with our youth programming.) We are also committed to helping with snow camp and youth participation in other camping programs. Our proposed program for 1994 would cost $2,000.00 and would help us continue to develop a network in our region that would better meet the needs of our children, youth, and families.

parsonage by St. John Church; celebrate with the Korean Church in their move into a newly purchased facility; approved plans for the Phase I construction of the St. John Church addition; supported First Church Wasilla and North Pole Church as they worked towards completion of their facilities; and encouraged the Unalaska Church in its site selection and initial building plans for the summer of 1993.

I feel that all of this "building" activity is reflective of other substantial growth that is occurring in the local churches of the conference. Recently the Board of Location and Building developed a revised application form and check list for use by local churches anticipating a building program. Copies of this new form are available from John Campbell.

K. Professional Ministries Unit

Ron Myers, Chair

This year was marked by short-term and long-term planning by the PMU for the new quadrennium. Ron Myers serves as chair of the PMU. Some of the areas for development that the PMU is committed to working on in the quadrennium are:

- The spiritual life and nurture of clergy and professional church workers

- continuing education

- retreats

- regional events

- a mentoring program for professional church workers and clergy

- Promotion of the conference continuing educational fund

- Conference profiles of churches and professional leadership in the Alaska Missionary Conference

- Development of a long range plan for enlistment and recruitment of ordained and diaconal ministers for the church

- Proactive role in interpreting the sexual misconduct document for the church

These areas are not conclusive of PMU work, but indicate our willingness to fulfill the mission of the Professional Ministries Unit.

The Professional Ministries Unit serves the functions of the Board of Ordained Ministry, chaired by Ron Myers; the Board of Diaconal Ministry, chaired by Rose McLean; and the Committee on the Superintendency and Episcopacy, chaired by Tom Taylor.

One common practice I became aware of, was when a church is 3 months in arrears on their HMEP coverage, the insured individuals are dropped from coverage. (A good percentage dropped them to 2 months, but the majority was 3 months.)

G. Northern Region Program Council

Del Wasser, Chair

Eleven people attended a meeting at St. Paul Church on Saturday, October 24. At that meeting we had a rather lengthy discussion about our role as a program council of churches widely divided by distance and desiring to be closer together in mission and programs. The Council felt it would be beneficial if the council could meet for a longer period of time in a retreat setting. Thus it was decided to plan in the spring to hold a retreat in the fall. We also approved an expenditure of $1,000 for new ministries. On Saturday night we had a very nice dinner as guests of Betty Taylor. On Sunday morning attending clergy from out of town preached in the churches of the Fairbanks/North Pole area.

We had tentative plans to meet in Nome in March, but with the rising cost of air fare and for convenience sake, we had a teleconference meeting on February 2. It was decided to meet in teleconferences when needed, perhaps bimonthly and use our program funds for the retreat in the fall. Another teleconference was planned for April 15 (after this report was written) to make plans for the retreat and to deal with other business which might come before the council. We have welcomed the Parks Highway Parish into the Northern Regional Council this year.

H. Southcentral Regional Program Council

Rose McLean, Chair

This year the make-up of the Southcentral RPC changed as the Willow church moved to the Northern Region and the newly chartered church in Unalaska joined our region. We celebrate and welcome the newest church in the Mission to our region and look forward to ministry together.

We met three times: Sept. 24 at Wasilla, Nov. 19 at the Korean UMC and March 2 at First UMC Anchorage.

Marketing was one of our primary thrusts. We sponsored 52 thirty second spots on channel 11 during Advent and discussed ways to use the newspaper creatively.

We made available $1,000 for ten scholarships to Rally '93 and had three persons use them making a total of four from our region since Rose McLean was there as one of the workshop leaders. We actually had 5 by claiming David White, who was on the design team and is currently in graduate school at Claremont.

Other actions were to support the Youth Summer Mission trip to Mexico, Ed Trimmer Youth Leadership workshops, Youth Snow Camp and Family Camp at Birchwood, Chuck Kishpaugh resourcing Birchwood Board, Lay Leader Training, and Confirmation Retreat involving Anchor Park, First, Wasilla, St. John, Palmer Fellowship, and Soldotna.

I. Southeastern Regional Program Council

Jim Sutton, Chair

The past year has been an exciting one for the Southeast Regional Program Council (SERPC). We renewed and strengthened our commitment to the Douglas Filipino Ministry and continued our support of the Southeast Youth Convo. In addition we have begun to make plans for a workshop on racism to be held in conjunction with our meeting in the fall of 1993. We are attempting to improve communications between the churches in Southeast, including improved communications between Christian Education leaders in Southeast. We are also looking into the possibility of bringing Jean Bursley, Financial Planning Consultant to each of the churches in Southeast. The past year has been interesting and challenging. The SERPC looks forward to the changes and challenges of the coming year.

J. Administrative Unit

Linda Jean P. Myers

The Administrative Unit has many different administrative responsibilities which are carried out through various sub-committees. The reports from these specific sub-committees follow.

Several churches in the Alaska Missionary Conference are in the process of planning and building new facilities. A new check list which outlines the requirements from the 1992 Book of Discipline is now available through the sub-committee, Church Building and Location.

I am thankful that I served on the Administrative Unit for two years under the capable leadership of Keith Wise. At times our work can be stressful, but everyone on this unit has been hard workers and I enjoy working with these 'characters'!

1. Trustees' Report

Mary Lou Hollett, Chair

Jackie Oberg, chair of the trustees, moved the beginning of the year; Mary Lou Hollett was appointed to serve as chair.

The primary property matter coming before the Board of Trustees was the need for room repairs on the Trapper Creek building. These repairs will be taken care of this summer.

Further study will continue on feasibility of title transfers for Birchwood Camp and Hope to the Alaska Missionary Conference.

2. Church Location and Building

John Campbell, Chair

During the past year the Board of Location and Building of the administrative unit has been involved in reviewing and supporting a number of building and property projects in the Alaska Missionary Conference. The Board gave approval to the final plans for remodeling of the Northern Light United Church; agreed to the use of New Ministries funds by St. Paul's Church for site development; consented to the purchase of a new parsonage by St. John Church; celebrate with the Korean Church in their move into a newly purchased facility; approved plans for the Phase I construction of the St. John Church addition; supported First Church Wasilla and North Pole Church as they worked towards completion of their facilities; and encouraged the Unalaska Church in its site selection and initial building plans for the summer of 1993.

I feel that all of this "building" activity is reflective of other substantial growth that is occurring in the local churches of the conference. Recently the Board of Location and Building developed a revised application form and check list for use by local churches anticipating a building program. Copies of this new form are available from John Campbell.

K. Professional Ministries Unit

Ron Myers, Chair

This year was marked by short-term and long-term planning by the PMU for the new quadrennium. Ron Myers serves as chair of the PMU. Some of the areas for development that the PMU is committed to working on in the quadrennium are:

- The spiritual life and nurture of clergy and professional church workers

- continuing education

- retreats

- regional events

- a mentoring program for professional church workers and clergy

- Promotion of the conference continuing educational fund

- Conference profiles of churches and professional leadership in the Alaska Missionary Conference

- Development of a long range plan for enlistment and recruitment of ordained and diaconal ministers for the church

- Proactive role in interpreting the sexual misconduct document for the church

These areas are not conclusive of PMU work, but indicate our willingness to fulfill the mission of the Professional Ministries Unit.

The Professional Ministries Unit serves the functions of the Board of Ordained Ministry, chaired by Ron Myers; the Board of Diaconal Ministry, chaired by Rose McLean; and the Committee on the Superintendency and Episcopacy, chaired by Tom Taylor.

1. Board of Ordained Ministry

Ron Myers

The B.O.M. provides supervision for candidates for ordained ministry, counsel those considering the ordained or diaconal ministries, plan the Clergy-Spouse Professional Church Worker's retreat, and administer continuing education funds (Milo Thornberry). This past year's retreat was on "Professional Clergy and Church Worker's Ethics", and the response to this event by participants was positive.

2. Board of Diaconal Ministry

Rose McLean, Chair

The Board of Diaconal Ministry is a sub-group of the Professional Ministries Unit which meets three times each year. We address any issues pertaining to Diaconal Ministry, such as progress of candidates and the continuing certification process of persons who are working in diaconal areas of ministry.

Rose McLean continues her certification as a Director of Christian Education and is completing her sixth year as Diaconal Minister at St. John UMC in Anchorage, and Dennis Holway holds certification in Christian Education from the California-Pacific Conference, his "home" conference. Joan Wilkins, a Diaconal Minister is serving Ninilchik: St. Peter the Fisherman as a local pastor and providing Christian Education resources to the Kenai Peninsula. Sharon Cooper has completed her formal training for Diaconal Ministry at the School of Theology at Claremont and will join the staff of Anchor Park UMC in Anchorage in July. Persons or churches seeking more information regarding Diaconal Ministry should contact Rose McLean.

3. Committee on Superintendency

Thomas Taylor, Chair

The Committee on the Superintendency is a subcommittee of the Professional Ministerial Unit. The committee meets three times each year with the PMU and other less formal times as deemed necessary and convenient.

The committee has the overall responsibility of serving as a support group for the Conference Superintendent, thus much of the work of the committee is confidential in nature.

We are responsible for the development of various parts of the conference budget relating to the Superintendent. This year we recommend the continuation of the existing formula for determining the Superintendent's salary.

Arlene Wood and I also serve on the Western Jurisdiction Committee on the Episcopacy which deals with similar issues. Hence, we have been able to share policies and procedures with persons from the other conferences of the jurisdiction.

Any thoughts that you feel would be helpful to us as we do our work would be greatly appreciated.

L. Conference Youth Council

Tina Michels, Chair

I have finally seen for myself what it is like to experience adolescence, and my conclusion? You must be crazy if you want to go through it again. But now that I am on the brink of the next day of the rest of my life, I would be shameful to many, mostly myself though, if I were not to share with you in gratitude a piece of the people and experiences that touched me this past year of my life in faith. David White, one of my favorite people. And I could never part without thanking him so graciously for all of his help and encouragement when I was just starting out at the Conference level of Youth Ministry. His quote in the 1992 Journal should be one to always keep in mind, "The best substitute for experience is to be 16." I cannot emphasize enough just how true this really is.

The past five years with the United Methodist Youth has been the time of my life. As a teenager trying to grow up in a confused society, trying to figure right from wrong, and what in the world is this dude called "God," I look back upon all this and just know deep inside that everything will really be alright. I have made many friends from all over this glorious state and other countries. Friends who have supported each other as one another's stepping stones into faith from curiosity, and friends that I know I will always walk next to for many years to come. I never really understood the value to society of a teen's curiosity and concerns until when the CCYM pulled out of the sky this idea (which honestly at the time seemed unrealistic) to go to Mexico in mission. I guess being from a small town I was ignorant to such an elaborate decision. Where would the money and of course time come from? But before anyone could answer July of 1992 rolled around and we were all on the plane heading for Tijuana.

After grunting under the 115 degree sun from dawn until dusk, bathing in water that you would never remotely imagine, eating almost the same meals every day, and loving it, you would not be able to walk away and say that you didn't feel or see Jesus our Lord there. Although each person departed with an individual experience, it is a consensus to say a bunch of once spoiled teens came back to Alaska with all the appreciation in the world for the simplest things, like having a mat to sleep on and of course a toilet! Most importantly, we departed Tijuana with an experience that we will remember forever. We walked with Jesus and had done the work of His wishes.

Even though geography within our conference can be a real hassle, everyone has tried as hard as they can to communicate with the cents and dollars in their budgets. It may not seem too common knowledge that the youth council has not done much, but as a newly birthed organization, we are still going through the "bugs" in our system. Many youth are going off to post-secondary schooling next year, and we are still trying to lay out some standard guidelines for the new youth councils in the years to come. We started out with nothing and frankly I feel we have done well, granted we changed advisors so soon into our council's growth, we keep in mind what our parents have told us, "You've turned out just fine."

Our group met during Snow Camp in December not only to meet but to host it, which was the ultimate challenge; Us in conjunction with adult supervision trying to explain and offer the concept of God and His love to a bunch of "Jr. High children." But the response was overwhelming. The statistic of "90% of all people who come to faith make this step before the age of 18," is one to keep in mind. I am grateful to say that we had the opportunity to share with the new adolescents what was once presented to us just saying you can accept what you want, but God's love will not harm you.

Immediately following Conference we will be participating in yet another mission event to work side by side in service to the unfortunate throughout our state of Alaska. There are many ways to support your youth, the future of our church; financially, of course, but still more importantly in prayer, not only as we go off in mission, but into a new and unfamiliar part of our lives.

To this past year's youth members of the CCYM (Anahma Saito, Anders Bell, Angela King, Rebekah Adkins, and Valerie Webb), I thank you for the times we've shared walking in faith and friendship, and on behalf of the chair of your CCYM, commend each of you to a mission well done! And of course to the wonderful glue amongst us, Steve Lambert, my prayers will always be with you, and we couldn't possibly thank you enough! See you at NYMO Convocation in New York in August. The CCYM Class of 1993.

M. Historian's Report

Verda Carey, Conference Historian

The Conference Archives and History Committee is charged with collecting, filing and maintaining the conference archives and historical records.

The committee has received records from two closed churches: Juneau United Methodist, Juneau and Bayshore United Methodist, Anchorage.

It was a joy to receive the first issue of the UNALASKA BREEZE, the newsletter of the Unalaska United Methodist Church. The church held its chartering service this past February.

I was privileged to attend the Joint Training Event for the Western Jurisdiction held in San Diego last January. Susan Eltscher, Asst. Gen. Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History, taught the workshop that I attended. We were reminded that today's events are tomorrow's archives and all church historians need to keep this in mind as events occur in their churches. Local churches need to have written histories and they should be updated periodically.

Bea Shepard and Claudia Kelsey attended the annual meeting of the Western Jurisdiction's Commission on Archives and History which was held in Las Vegas in July.

The conference archives are housed in the Douglas Community United Methodist Church in Douglas. Thank you for continuing to send your church newsletters and other items to me.

N. Outdoor Ministries

Norvell Robertson, Chair

Primary among the accomplishments of the Outdoor Ministries Committee during this past program year were the following:

- 1) Recognition of the necessity of meeting the minimum standards of care for our camps as recommended by the National Council of Churches and United Methodist Church Outdoor Ministry literature.

- 2) Prioritizing emphasis for our ministry as follows: Southeast Camp, Birchwood Camp, and Hope Retreat Center.

3) Applying for and receiving preliminary approval of a million dollar grant to be received in the year 2000. Of this amount, 70% is to be invested, with the assistance of outside investment consultants. Of the remainder, 10% is to go to the Camp Committee of Birchwood Camp for capital improvements, 10% to the Camp Committee of Southeast Camp for capital improvements, and 10% to be dispersed at the discretion of the Outdoor Ministries Committee for other organized camping programs. Plans for use of these discretionary funds must be submitted to the Outdoor Ministries Committee prior to disbursements of the funds. Ninety percent of the interest from the investments will be made available for use each year for Conference camping programs at the discretion of the Outdoor Ministries Committee.

4) Clarification of the Alaska Ethnic Camping Fund intent -- some financial resources are available to assist ethnic or other rural persons who wish to attend camp.

1. Southeast United Methodist Camp (Argetsinger)

Richard Haight, Chair

Our sparkling cider lost its fizz. The glass is dusty. We turned out in force in May to survey the land around Argetsinger Camp, the last impediment to get title to the land on which the Southeast United Methodist Camp rests. Now, a dozen years later, we believe that at last the land will belong to the AMC, but alas, we discover that the State bureaucracy moves at the same grinding speed as the Federal government. We also learn that the City and Borough of Juneau must also agree that a church owned camp at Eagle River is in their best interest. God reminds us to enjoy the lilies, but to not covet them. More next year.

The fun of chairing the Southeast Methodist Camp Board is watching others make it work. Norvell Robertson hosted the third annual off campus event, a raft trip down the Yukon River. At camp, ministers and laity from Ketchikan, Sitka and Juneau gave to many young minds the memory of fun, friends, fellowship, and a closeness to God in a wilderness experience they will remember and cherish.

No new building occurred in 1992 at Argetsinger, but in 1993 we will complete the wash house, and make certain that the lodge, Maier Cabin, major trails in camp, and some of the summer cabins are wheel chair accessible.

Meanwhile, we manage to keep our fiscal heads above water and thank God for this wonderful way to serve and to enjoy a tiny segment of our Creator's magnificent world.

2. Birchwood Camp Board

Sandy McWilliams, Chair

It has been an exciting year since the Board took that "leap of faith" to hire a full time Director/Manager. We have heard many praises about the facilities since Dave Kober filled this position. The challenge, which the Homer youth gave at last Annual Conference, to have all churches donate $200 toward the camp shower house fund has been met (and in several instances exceeded) by practically every church who uses the camp. A sincere thanks and a big hug to all of you for your support!

The shower house is in the hands of designers/engineers now. We still have a long way to go to fund this project, but hope to have it well underway by next year. Chuck Kishpaugh, Director of National Camping Ministries for the General Board, spent a day meeting with our Board and we are now ready to actively pursue long-range planning. In the fall, at least 4 Board members will be leaving the Board. Please prayerfully consider becoming active in this very rewarding, worthwhile ministry, and let us know if you would like to be nominated for a Board position.

O. Alaska Christian Conference

Betty J. Taylor

The 11th Biennial Assembly of the Alaska Christian Conference was held March 1, 1993 in Anchorage. Dr. Michael Kinnamon, who was scheduled to be the key note speaker for the Assembly was unable to attend. The officers elected to serve for this biennium are: President Gene Straatmeyer (Presbyterian), Vice President Barbara Block (Roman Catholic), Secretary Linda Jean Myers (United Methodist), and Treasurer Mary Kron (Presbyterian).

Task Forces which will be active the next two years are: Ecumenical Dialogue, In Response to HIV/AIDS, Native Alaskan Issues, Ecumenical Decade of Solidarity with Women, and Prison Ministry.

A New Pastors' Orientation Retreat will be scheduled for summer, 1993, for clergy new to Alaska from each of the member communions. The retreat is designed to help newcomers understand the unique aspects of ministry in Alaska, as well as to provide them with specific information to aid them in their work.

The Valley Christian Conference and the Interfaith Council of Anchorage were received as affiliate members of the Conference.

With eleven member communions and five affiliate members, the Alaska Christian Conference continues to be the vital ecumenical body in Alaska. Ann Janzen and Carol Seckel represent the Alaska Missionary Conference on its Executive Committee, which meets semi-annually to carry on the business of the organization between Biennial Assembly gatherings.

P. Native Ministries

Mary Ann Warden, Chair

The Committee had its meeting December 11-12, 1992, where everyone shared their stories in getting to know one another. Mary Ann was elected chair, and Claudette Curtis volunteered as secretary with Kevin Seckel as acting secretary in her absence. In the February 1993 meeting, Nancy Felton accepted the nomination to replace Betty Ann Michels who has resigned from the Native Ministries Committee.

We mourn the great loss of the Rev. John Waghiyi who died March 7, 1993, and ask for continued prayers for Della and her family. Della had open heart valve surgery February 26 and is planning to return to Nome. Please pray for her continued healing and ministry.

In the December meeting, a letter from the Anvik Traditional Council was received as an invitation for the UMC to provide church service as well as Sunday school service. This invitation was discussed, and in the February meeting the Episcopalian Church connections were made and approval was obtained to proceed in the new ministry. Representatives to meet with the New Ministries Committee are Charlotte Snyder and Nancy Felton to discuss borough- by-borough area study, to start up new ministries and Native ministries. There are many ministry possibilities in different areas of Alaska, and prayers are requested for the Holy Spirit's leading in these possibilities.

Ministers are invited to come to the Native Ministries Committee if there are concerns. Funds are to be set aside to send ministers involved in Native Ministries to ECTMA for training.

Charlotte Snyder and Kevin Seckel are to meet with John Tindell regarding a proposal for a Racism workshop which can be planned during the Conference meeting. A Native American Awareness Sunday should be emphasized in the churches and the offering can be designated.

Q. New Ministries Committee

John Tindell, Chair

The New Ministries Unit spent time this first year of the quadrennium reflecting on what new ministry is, and developing a purpose statement. We decided new ministry is 1) both new and re-developed ministries, 2) saying "no" as well as "yes" to ministry opportunities, 3) risking new beginnings with no guarantees, 4) celebrating both losses and gains, 5) resourcing, 6) responding to needs, 7) facilitating faith to dare and risk, and 7) planting seeds now which may later develop. Our goal is to "reach people, where they are, as they are, in Christ's name, in Alaska, led by the Holy Spirit."

Recently started new ministries in which we are actively involved include Unalaska, the Douglas Filipino ministry, and Palmer. We approved church extension funds to put a new roof on our property at Trapper Creek. We also approved funding for a volunteer in mission to serve for a six-month period at Trapper Creek. We envision this person, living in the community, will help us understand what the future for the Trapper Creek fellowship should be.

Based upon demographic information provided to us through the denomination's Council on Ministries office, which indicates a relatively high United Methodist preference combined with relatively low existing church involvement by the populations involved, we are exploring new ministry possibilities in Talkeetna, Dillingham, Haines, Prince of Wales Island, and Bristol Bay. We are also exploring new ministry possibilities in Magadan. The Episcopal Church in Alaska has indicated they would support ministry by United Methodists in the formerly Episcopalian villages of Anvik, Grayling, and Shageluk. In April Superintendent Carol Seckel led a team to visit Anvik to explore this possibility.

We strongly support the proposed Major Funds Campaign for our conference.

R. Conference Lay Leader

Lane C. Rees

Attended the National Lay Leaders Conference in Atlanta, Georgia where we participated in a seminar on vision and direction for our denomination. Carol Seckel, Tom Trotter and myself have been working to strengthen the relationship with Alaska Pacific University by nominating a local church advocate at each United Methodist Church in the South Central Region.

It was a blessing to lead services in several of our churches this year and participate in worship in many others. Robbie Robinson, Lila Fergus and myself led Lay Speaker

Training at Birchwood Camp in March which included participation from sixteen people representing ten AMC churches. The training included both Basic and Advanced and highlighted communication, caring, and leading for laity.

S. United Methodist Women

Theresa K. Morrison, President

Our yearly goals reflect and direct specific projects, and they are voted on by local delegates at our annual meeting every fall. In 1992 and 1993, our commitment to mission is reflected by increased pledges to undesignated giving, financial and personal support to church and community projects in Alaska, membership growth from 487 to 523, and ongoing sponsorship of local mission education events. We are encouraging any local or conference efforts that promote the Ecumenical Decade for Churches in Solidarity with Women. Leadership training is a continuing concern as we face distance and communication challenges.

Special goals are promoted by our Committee on the Charter for Racial Justice. A newly established Racial Justice Award intends to recognize people or institutions who have overcome the barriers of racism and prejudice.

Mission education events are annually held in each region. Although they are organized and financed by UMW, the events and studies are for all church and community members interested. 1993 topics are Peoples of the Caribbean, Global Economics: Seeking A Christian Ethic, and Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew: "Who Do You Say That I Am?"

T. Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

Ann Janzen

It was a slow start, but things are rolling now.

Thirteen Alaskans attended the Global Gathering in Indianapolis during April and hosted a display on the Alaska Missionary Conference.

Two of the World Division Missionaries who have gone out from Alaska will be returning home early this fall. Justine Emerson and Adrian Slater with their children will return from Nepal. Help us think of creative ways to let them know how much we appreciate their giving these years in mission. You can reach them through Aldersgate Church.

Loren and Carol Stanton and their baby are still in Hong Kong. Letters and notes mean a great deal. Their address is Lincoln Heights, D-8, Belair Gardens, 52 Tas Chung Kiv Rd., Shatin, N.T., Hong Kong.

We are beginning to make plans for a major Mission Event in the spring of 1994. Stand by for more news!

U. Hunger Coordinator

Douglas McCoy

The position of Hunger Coordinator was initiated by the United Methodist Committee on Relief, General Board of Global Ministries, in an effort to more effectively share the church's response to the needs of people around the world. For 53 years, UMCOR has provided food, shelter and hope to millions of people afflicted by war, floods, earthquakes, and famines. "By accepting the biblical understanding of shalom United Methodists develop a faith that searches for opportunities to transform human lives by reclaiming, redeeming, restoring, and renewing life in a way that reaffirms the reign of God."

The World Hunger/Poverty Mission Emphasis is designed to relieve the millions of people suffering from chronic malnutrition through emergency assistance and long-term development. About 80 percent of the budget is used to alleviate hunger and poverty overseas and 20 percent is used to alleviate domestic hunger and poverty. Nome Community Center received support for its regional Food Bank Development project last year, and was able to establish 6 village food banks and bring over 300,000 pounds of food into the region, primarily for Native Eskimo villages.

Local churches in the Alaska Missionary Conference are urged to consider their response to the need of the hungry within their own communities, in the United States and throughout the world. The UMCOR Resource Book lists hundreds of projects that can be supported through the Advance. Your church's One Great Hour of Sharing Offering each year provides funds which can be used to insure that all projects throughout the world receive full promised funding. Your congregation's support of local efforts and the Food Bank of Alaska can be significant responses to human need near at hand.

For more information about UMCOR and the hunger/poverty emphasis see the display at Conference or contact me.

W. Volunteers in Mission

May Campbell and Sandra Coon

The Volunteers in Mission program for our Conference has kept the two of us very busy and challenged trying to secure successful matches for our churches and agency's needs and the desire to serve VIMS who have applied to come to Alaska.

Year ending 1992 saw 11 churches/agencies hosting 19 VIM teams and over 20 couples/individuals coming from 12 different states, all joining with A.M.C. projects and missions. Wasilla hosted the highest number of teams having 9 teams for a total of 123 people, who shared 5025 hours of volunteer labor. VIMS did diverse work, such as major construction to minor repairs and odd jobs at churches and camps, as well as teaching VBS, cooking for summer camp program, hosting at Youth Hostels and hundreds of small helpful tasks.

Alaska had a Youth team go to Mexico, under the leadership of Rev. Steve Lambert, they assisted in a construction project.

Sixty-three applications have been sent out to inquiring VIM individuals and teams for 1993 and to date we have matched 27 teams and small groups or individuals to a total of 19 projects for the year. 1994 and 1995 have already been indicated by teams as times their group want to come.

These two areas continue to demonstrate A.P.U.'s commitment to the partnership between the university and the church.

APU is prepared to respond to the needs and the concerns of the church in higher education. Furthermore, we are aware of the enormous responsibility that is entrusted to us in educating the leader's of tomorrow. We trust that the churches of this conference will encourage United Methodist students to attend APU.

The people of the Alaska Missionary Conference are important members of the Alaska Pacific University community, and the university is grateful for their prayers, gifts and talents. We salute Bishop Dew, Mission Superintendent Carol Seckel and the United Methodist Trustees of Alaska Pacific University who give generously of themselves to the university.

Z. Nome Community Center

Douglas McCoy, Executive Director

The mission of Nome Community Center is to improve the lives of people in Northwestern Alaska through a variety of services in response to human needs. The word "service" is central to the accomplishments and major activities of our organization during the past year, continuing the work first begun in 1910.

Services to Elders: XYZ Senior Center has continued to provide congregate and home delivered meals, transportation and support to 307 seniors. Nome Adult Day Care became fully operational during the year, providing supervised activities and care to 13 elders as a means of improving their quality of life and reducing their need for institutional care.

Services to Families: The needs of hungry families have been a focus of NCC through the Bering Strait Food Bank programs which distributed approximately 300,000 pounds of food in 1992. During the year NCC helped establish six village food banks.

Services to Children and Youth: Young Teen Center continued its operation on a reduced basis due to state funding cuts. 801 children, youth and parents were served by the Teen Center in FY92. New intensive family support service began with state funding. The Native Youth Entrepreneurial Training Project provided training for 44 youth over its 3-year grant, and a new project has begun, providing training in 8 communities in the region. NCC assumed leadership for summer youth employment providing jobs for 24 youth.

Services to People in the Region: The Community Partnership completed its second year with the inclusion of more agencies and organizations and with cooperation and participation of the major service providers in the region. Villages began the envisioning process to determine their own goals and objectives for a healthy community.

Service by Volunteers: The Center was significantly impacted by the willingness of people to volunteer their skills and time to rebuild the Food Bank building, renovate the Senior Center and repair other NCC buildings, conduct food drives, cook a community Thanksgiving Dinner, and assist in staffing the various programs of the Center.

AA. United Campus Ministry

University of Alaska Fairbanks, Chuck Young

United Campus Ministry is at a turning point in its history. After fifteen years as Director, Chuck Young will be leaving this year. The new Director's position will be half-time, with the current half-time Secretary/Reception position increased to three-quarters time. The reason for this change is financial. The board of U.C.M. has done a thorough job of searching for a new Director. A decision will be reached by Annual Meeting of the AMC, and the person will be introduced at that time if possible.

Three emphases have directed the energies of the board and staff at U.C.M. during this last year: "kids, courses and money." A strong effort has been made to develop a coherent core of students who can be identified by the in-coming Director, and who can be counted on to provide a nucleus of student leadership for the future. Credit courses in Bible and World Religions have been one of the trademarks of U.C.M.'s presence on the UAF campus for almost a decade. Every section offered this year was over subscribed. In spite of vigorous efforts on the part of Chuck and the U.C.M. board these have been cut from the UAF course offerings for Fall 93. Whether they will be reinstated at some future point is yet to be determined.

In the face of declining denominational revenues over the last few years the staff and board have increased their efforts at fund raising. The goal for 92-93 has been to generate the resources to maintain the current staff level throughout the year while preparing for inevitable cut-backs in finances and staffing in 93-94. It has been nip-and-tuck but it appears that by the end of the fiscal year this will be accomplished.

BB. University Community Ministry

University of Alaska Anchorage/Alaska Pacific University Jay OlsonKetchum

The purpose of the University Campus Ministry is: "It shall be the purpose of the University Campus Ministry to be: a presence of the church in the university community; a Christian influence on life in a secular arena; a source of direction to persons facing doubts and questions; an ecumenical program drawing individuals together in Christian fellowship and study; and a communication link between the Church and the University community."

The UCM Ministry is governed by a board of clergy and laity from Anchorage area churches. The Board oversees the work of the Chaplain and assists in planning program through hard work and prayer. Churches that support the ministry are invited to have representation on the Board.

UCM has an active student club on campus that involves students in Bible Study, field trips and outings, participation in Club Council, and sponsorship of a multitude of events on campus. Among those in 1992-1993 was a native American POW WOW for Vietnam and Gulf War Veterans.

Continued support for UCM is vital to the life of our community. Prayer, human resources and finances are well used in the nurturing of the thousands of students at UAA.

CC. Western Small Church Rural Life Center

Linda Jean P. Myers

The Center has and continues to play a significant role in resourcing persons involved in rural ministry and strengthening churches with small membership. The Center's future is a bright one with solid established programs. However, like many other non-profit agencies, the financial situation for 1993 is extremely tight.

Dr. Deborah K. Cronin has been the Center's executive director for the past three years, but will be leaving this summer. Currently a search is on to fill this vital position.

X. Petitions and Recommendations

A. Petitions

Petition #1 received a vote of concurrence. "PROJECT LOST" (Lights on Sightless Trains) BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Alaska Missionary Conference of the United Methodist Church calls upon the Alaska Department of Transportation and the Alaska Railroad to require each car of trains to have reflective stripes to warn motorists of their presence and thereby avoid senseless loss of human life. And therefore we join other conferences in petitioning the United States Congress to mandate such changes on all rail transportation throughout the United States. The suggested response group was the CCC to be completed during '93-'94.

Petition #2 received a vote of concurrence. BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the function of the Annual Conference Board of Higher Education and Ministry reside in the Professional Ministries Unit of the AMC.

Petition #3 received a vote of concurrence as amended. BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Nominating Committee be responsible for nominating the chairpersons of the following conference committees: Administrative Unit, New Ministries, Native Ministries, and Outdoor Ministries.

Petition #4 received a vote of concurrence as amended. BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the AMC work to provide dependent care or reimbursement of dependent care for all business meetings. Reimbursement of up to $25 per person per meeting for dependent care was authorized. If child care is offered on-site persons will be urged to bring children to the site.

Petition #5 received a vote of concurrence. BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED "that the primary meeting of the CCYM is recommended to be in conjunction with the place and date of the Annual Meeting of the AMC."

Petition #6 received a vote of concurrence. BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED "that it is recommended that the membership of the CCC should be comprised of approximately 50% laity and 50% clergy.

B. Recommendations

1. Conference Council on Finance and Administration

1. All requests for funds from the AMC budget shall be submitted to CFA prior to its winter meeting.
2. The Superintendent's salary shall be 133% of the AMC "full time" clergy average salary as established by the most recent round of charge conferences.
3. The total compensation subsidy for 1994 will be $75,000.
4. The total budgeted for the Alaska Missionary Conference for 1994 will be $521,682.

5. The grade point figure for each local church will be the average (over a three-year period) of $\frac{1}{3}$ of the membership grade figure (MGF) and $\frac{2}{3}$ of the local expense grade figure (LEGF).

- a. The 1993 grade point figure will be based upon statistics for 1990, 1991, and 1992.
- b. The MGF equals the individual church membership divided by AMC total membership at the end of the last calendar year.
- c. The LEGF equals the individual church's expenditures divided by the total of the expenditures of all AMC churches in the last calendar year. Local church expenditures include clergy support (plus 25% of the pastor's salary if the pastor is provided a parsonage) and other church expenses with the exception of rent payment for church facilities with principal and interest paid on indebtedness, payments on building improvements, and non-apportioned benevolences paid by the local church.
- d. The apportionment for pensions shall be that recommended by the Administrative Unit.
- e. Apportionments to a local church shall not increase or decrease more than the percentage change in the apportioned budget $\pm 10\%$.

5. CFA recommends that AMC accept the negotiated apportionments of $62,842 for GCF&A general support for 1994. This amount is 60% of the GCF&A on formula amount for the annual conferences.

7. At the end of the fiscal year the account balances shall revert as follows:

--CONNECTIONAL CLERGY SUPPORT to CONNECTIONAL CLERGY
SUPPORT RESERVE FUND

--PENSION FUND to PENSION RESERVES

--OFFICE EQUIPMENT REPLACEMENT FUND, CONFERENCE VEHICLE
FUND, AMC SUPERINTENDENT'S AUTO REPLACEMENT FUND, WESLEYAN HOUSE OPERATIONS FUND, AND 1996 ANNUAL MEETING FUND--do not revert.

--ALL OTHER LINE ITEMS to GENERAL OPERATIONS RESERVE FUND

Apportionments for new churches will be reduced in the following manner after they are chartered:

First year - No apportionment

Second year - $\frac{1}{3}$ apportionment

Third Year - $\frac{2}{3}$ apportionment

Fourth Year- Full apportionment

All churches should pay their apportionments in 10 equal installments beginning in January in order to avoid apportionment arrearages and to provide for constant AMC cash flow.

0. The nonapportioned asking should be retained at $80,000 unless the Major Fund campaign is approved by the Conference.

1. AMC local churches should make a sincere effort to contribute to the New Ministries nonapportioned asking. They should also encourage their members to support the Alaska United Methodist Foundation with their contributions.

2. Board of Pensions

Changes and budget recommendations in Board of Pensions report for 1994 AMC Budget presented at 1993 meeting of the AMC.

1. Determination of cash salary for means of plan compensation, i.e. MPP/CPP.
 - a. Cash Salary (including Social Security allowance)
 - b. Housing allowance, or when a parsonage is provided, 24% (23% is the figure from the previous year) of the cash salary as the value of the parsonage.
 - c. Any tax-deferred annuity contribution paid by the salary-paying unit during the year.
2. The Ministerial Pension Program (MPP) contribution rate for 1994 shall be 12% of the contribution base of each minister.
3. The Comprehensive Protection Program (CPP) contribution rate for 1994 shall be 4.4% of the contribution base of each full-time minister. For ordained ministers working less than full-time, the contribution rate for 1994 shall be 3.4% of the DAC. Part-time Local Pastors are not covered under the CPP.
4. Remittance of the MPP-CPP shall be made by the Alaska Missionary Conference with the funds generated through the apportionment system adjusted as recommended below.
5. All ordained ministers under episcopal appointment by the Alaska Missionary Conference and eligible for the AMC Pension Program shall be covered by the CPP including those receiving less than equitable compensation (i.e. those serving less than full-time).
6. An ordained minister in an appointment beyond the local church is eligible to participate in the MPP/CPP plans as indicated in the Plan Documents of the General Board of Pensions. If the charge, institution, or agency is unable to arrange participation directly with the General Board of Pensions, the minister may be covered through the Alaska Missionary Conference, provided the salary-paying unit makes appropriate contributions to cover the actual cost of MPP/CPP for that individual.
7. The Past Service Pension Rate for 1994 shall be $340.00 per service year. It is the intention of the committee to maintain a rate of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC) so as to avoid penalty.
8. For pension recipients, the Alaska Missionary Conference designates up to 100% of the pension payments to be allocated as housing allowance by the individual clergy person. The amount would be excluded from gross income as provided by Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code. (Subject to all IRS ruling.)
9. Part-time Local Pastors under episcopal appointment shall be covered for MPP at the prevailing rate.
10. Funding for 1993 shall be as follows:
 - a. Current Service - MPP/CPP

16.4% of $33,017 (DAC 1994) = $	5,414.78
24 Conference Funded Full-time Ordained Ministers
(including Superintendent)	$ 129,954.94
1 Part-time Ordained Minister (75%)
($ 24,762.74 X 15.4%	3,813.46

b. Current Service - MPP

Ninilchik $ 17,000

Tongan $ 4,500

Girdwood $5,200 Total: $23,400

$28,400 X 12% $ 3,408.00

TOTAL FUNDS NEEDED FOR FOR 1994 PENSION PROGRAM ..$ 137,176.40

SOURCES OF FUNDING FOR 1994:

a. Apportionments of all churches$ 110,000.00

b. Pension Reserves 27,176.40

TOTAL FUNDING SOURCES FOR 1994$ 137,176.40

1. To maintain comparable levels of contributions for pensions, the following adjustments shall be made in the computation of apportionments for the pension portion of the budget only:

a. For churches with more than one ordained position/salary, the regular grade point figure shall be used for the first U. M. ordained ministerial position/salary. For each additional eligible U. M. position/salary, the church shall be apportioned the full pension cost for that position. The full pension cost shall be computed at 16.4% of the DAC or plan compensation (whichever is less) and shall be pro-rated for the effective months of the year. Exceptions to this rule may be made for specialized ministries upon recommendation of the Administrative Unit to the Annual Meeting.

b. For Union/United Churches

1. With one U.M. ordained minister, the grade figure will be doubled.
2. With no U.M. ordained ministers, the grade figure is zero (assuming the pension for the pastor is paid elsewhere).
3. When a Union/United church has more than one ordained minister, one of whom is United Methodist, the regular grade figure is used. (adopted 1987)

For your information: Our conference's current pension needs are funded at the rate of 115.31%. We have a total liability of $1,658,179 and this is secured by a funding base of $1,912,085.

3. Committee on Equitable Compensation

1. Minimum Compensation for 1994

A. Minimum Cash Base Compensation $23,000

1. Cash Compensation

2. Social Security allowance for pastor's tax liability

3. Tax Sheltered Annuity

(Note: The exact amounts of 1, 2, and 3 are to be worked out between the pastors and congregation involved; health insurance is not to be included here.)

B. Additions to $23,000

1. Experience factor- add $150 per service year from date of ordination as Deacon.

2. Area Cost of Living Adjustment (add % of cash base).
 - a. Anchorage, 0% added.
 - b. Kenai Peninsula, Sitka, Fairbanks, Wasilla, Willow, Trapper Creek, North Pole, 5% added.
 - c. Nome, 35% added.
 - d. Unalaska/Dutch Harbor, 40% added.
 - e. All others, 0% added.
- C. Other considerations
 1. A parsonage and full utilities or a reasonable housing allowance shall be provided to pastors serving full-time appointments.
 2. A local transportation allowance shall be provided to meet actual pastorally related expenses in each situation.
 3. Professional expenses other than health insurance and those listed in C-1 shall be figured as a part of minimum compensation.
 4. $900 minimum for Continuing Education.
2. Compensation Subsidy needs for 1994 $75,000
 - A. A church on Compensation Subsidy must have the approval of the Conference Superintendent and the Equitable Compensation Committee in order to continue that subsidy when hiring another full-time professional staff person.
 - B. A compensation subsidy cannot be given if a pastor is making more than minimum compensation.
 - C. The amount of subsidy given to each situation will be negotiated between the local church, Conference Superintendent, and Equitable Compensation Committee.

XI. Statistical and Financial Reports

A. Report of the Financial Assistant - 1993

Linda Faro

$30,000 to Advance Specials--that's what the churches of the Alaska Missionary Conference gave in 1992! The money supported projects such as Hurricane Andrew, Crusade Scholarships, Adrian Slater, Justine Emerson, and the Potato Project of the Society of St. Andrew among others. This giving reflects an increase of approximately $11,000 over 1991.

Apportionment receipts by the conference decreased, however, from 96% in 1991 to 92% in 1992. Total Ministerial Support receipts equalled 96% (98.5% in 1991); Connectional Administration, 88% (104%, 1991); World Service and Conference Benevolences, 89% (96%, 1991); and Other General Conference, 87% (93%, 1991).

Special Offerings garnered $10,272 with the majority of that money ($7,235) going to One Great Hour of Sharing. This represents approximately $2.72 per church member in 1992.

Although the churches of the Alaska Missionary Conference receive substantial support from outside sources these churches also truly support the connectional principle of the United Methodist Church as evidenced by their giving to special offerings and advance special projects!

Conference Secretary notation: This second time of editing the Conference Journal has made me much more aware of the continuing and various challenges in compiling an accurate document. It's not an easy task because within the AMC the only constant is change. Thus the best the Journal reflects one point in our ever-changing history.

I offer my thanks to Susie Holway and Faye Fellers for their assistance in the final completion of this document. I'm also pleased to have the Journal printed locally by ASETS (Alaska Specialized Education and Training Services of Anchorage). May the 1993 Journal serve you well in your ministry.
